✠ Recently Deceased ✠

We remember John Griffin, Dublin whose funeral will take place on Monday. We also remember Johnny Matson, formerly of Main St who passed away in London during the week. May their gentle souls rest in peace. We offer our sympathy to all who are bereaved.

Trees By Joyce Kilmer

*I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree.*

*A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;*

*A tree that looks at God all day,
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;*

*A tree that may in Summer wear
A nest of robins in her hair;*

*Upon whose bosom snow has lain;
Who intimately lives with rain.*

*Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.*

Rosary at Our Lady's Well: Every evening during the summer at 7.00 pm (starting May 1st) we will gather at our local grotto, OUR LADY'S WELL, to pray the Rosary together. What a beautiful gift to give to Our Blessed Mother. Everyone welcome!

Carnegie Arts Centre ~ Photographic Exhibition of Corpus Christi Processions

During the month of May 2024 the Carnegie will host an exhibition of photos of social and historical significance. These photos are of Corpus Christi processions dating from the 1960s and are part of a collection which came from St Clare's convent. The exhibition also includes other images and feature faces and places from a very different Kenmare. They are a snapshot in time and very evocative. A special thanks to the Sisters of St Clare for this lovely gift which will undoubtedly reawaken warm memories for many.
